"Behold, we know not anything; I can but trust that good shall fall at last—far off—at last, to all, And every winter change to spring."

The year without a summer witnesses winter changing to spring on the western steppes, and Prof. Beeswax P. McGinnis is harvesting another bountiful crop of horse laughs.

If Jesse James gets a monument out in Missouri we think one ought to be erected to his cousin Henry, whose sentences were even longer.

France and the Argentine don't seem to realize that the G. O. P. doesn't want to make the tariff the issue next year.

One thing that simplifies the work of the Tariff Commission in making an estimate of the cost of producing Argentine corn is that it won't have to figure the overhead per bushel of the regular annual winter trip to Miami.

Good-by, old lid,
Upon the shid
Of custom I must place you;
The bell doth ring!
(I'd like to cling)

But could not thus disgrace you.
Though high the mercury in the glass
You're out of date—the felt is class.

Speaking of out of date straws somebody at Geneva appears to be discussing the Canal Zone through an obsolete Panama.

Young, beautiful, artless, innocent,
And wise."

Hagerstown gentleman of 60 hobbles into matrimony with a bride of 18. January, as Mr. Pope would say, "fixed at last upon the youthful May."

Buddy encounters the cost of high living on the Paris front and is having more than the usual difficulty in going over the top.

The mere layman fails to see what the sound objection can be to transoceanic flights in land planes—the man who undertakes to cross the Atlantic expects to come down in Le Bourget and not on the Grand Banks, and but for this hope what would be the use of airplanes anyhow?

A good nose on a woman's face insures the permanence of her beauty long after her once star-lit eyes have faded and there are lines about her erstwhile rosebud mouth, so Fanny Brice may console herself for the loss of a husband who couldn't stand her facial remodeling with the reflection that "plain as a nose on a man's face" has no feminine parallel.

The Iowa gentleman who steps out and commits matrimony at 98 makes the Hagerstown swain look like a fit subject for the juvenile court.

The Tariff Commission will have to content itself hereafter with sticking its nose into American industry's business.

Kaiser Bill's prediction of a new war in ten years leaves us somewhat comforted by the reflection that he won't have a hand in it.

The Hohenzollern "Ex" regrets that the world won't let him show the road to peace, but who would want to goose-step down that highway?

Henry Ford buys $42,000,000 worth of rubber trees in Brazil and is going to teach them by the modern efficiency system to turn out standardized rubber tires, thus eliminating the middleman.

With the decision of the world fliers to end their flight in Tokyo there will be no complaint except from the morticians.

Florida citrus growers deny that Secretary Jardine has been offered a lemon.

One gathers from the Al Smith reaction in Tennessee that Dayton is a pretty average cross-section of that State.

Auto bandits hold up an Ohio bus and rob the passengers of $50,000. People will do anything nowadays in order to have a monument erected to their memory.

The Washington pushcart man who gets away with a salesman's $50,000 jewelry stock didn't have much of a cart, but he was sure strong on the push.

Secretary Mellon takes the sting out of a bit of premature Pittsburgh political news.

It looks as though Miss Elder would put to air for Paris pretty soon now if anybody doesn't stop her with a spanking breeze.

VICTORY FOR G. O. P. SEEN IN TENNESSEE IF GOV. SMITH RUNS

Lowden, Hoover, Dawes Would Carry State, Democrats Admit.

INTEREST CENTERED IN REPUBLICAN PICK

New Yorker, It Is Said, Might Conciliate Drys, but Religion Is Fatal.

By ARTHUR M. EVANS.
Special to The Washington Post.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 14.—Lowden, Hoover and Dawes all appear exceptionally strong in western and central Tennessee among Republicans and Democrats alike. On the Democratic side, the talk is all Smith and anti-Smith, other candidates not getting even a polite mention.

Among politicians and observers, one finds a strong impression that if Gov. Smith is the Democratic nominee, Lowden, Hoover, or Dawes, or Hoover, any one of the three would have a good chance to carry Tennessee, repeating 1920 when the State went to Harding and the Republicans elected a governor, half the representatives in Congress and the railroad commission.

The State is 70 per cent rural, its dryness has a longer background than the Antislavery League, for it was part of the dry movement which swept the South early in the century aimed at the consumption of gin by the negro. Despite its aridity, there is plenty of moisture. Not as wet, of course, as Detroit or Buffalo, across from Ontario, but those who ought to know testify that the juice of the corn is easy to get in Memphis and Nashville and other centers, while from the hills descends a continuous flow of mountain dew.

Religion Fatal Barrier.
In Memphis, too, the making of home brew is reported an important branch of the domestic arts. Not even in Tennessee, it seems, has sinful man been legislated into a State of ginlessness.

But in its voting the electorate is as dry as ever. Some Democratic leaders say Gov. Smith might be able to make a pronouncement of his views on prohibition that might tone down antagonism to him as a wet among the country voters and give him the State. If it were only a question of Volsteadism. But in addition, they point out, the matter of religion is the one likely to cause most havoc with his campaign in this State if he is nominated. The State is Protestant and the politicians have a vision of the fundamentalists in the rural Democratic sections slaughtering the Democratic ticket. The line of cleavage on religion, they argue, is stronger than the cleavage on party.

The astonishing thing down here is the interest the Democrats are displaying in the Republican candidates. This seems largely due to a prevailing belief that it looks like a Republican year and that it seems like Smith for the Democratic banner bearer.

Lowden Especially Strong.
Gov. Lowden is well known in the State and everywhere one meets men with a good word to say about him. Among the farmers he is strong. For years he has raised cotton on his plantations in Arkansas, in the Memphis area and he is rated the largest landowner in the lower Mississippi Valley. For years he has been getting out among the cotton raisers at his meetings and they regard him as a real dirt farmer who knows the problems confronting agriculture and his popularity is acknowledged in Tennessee, Arkansas and down the valley.

Secretary Hoover is strong because of flood relief activities, and, like Lowden, he is talked of wherever politics is brought up. Profound admiration of his services and abilities is expressed among business men and ordinary people on the streets and at drug-store fountains.

Vice President Dawes, in Memphis, seems to run well up with Lowden and Hoover in the popular esteem. The Democrats still talk of his "Hell and Maria" remark when the politicians were trying to muckrake the war. Tennessee was strong for Woodrow Wilson, and Wilson Democrats regard Dawes as having thwarted an effort to displace Wilson.

Talking of Republicans.
What seems strange, as one moves around here finds Democrats talking more about these three Republicans than about Gov. Smith. What they are saying is that Memphis and adjacent regions have a mutuality of interest with Chicago and that the South being agricultural, has, through common problems, a closer link with the middle West than with New York and New England. The talk sounds like a dawning Mississippi Valley political consciousness.

One remark heard widely is that West and South need a President with a sympathetic understanding of agricultural problems and needs, and one finds Democrats here expressing a hope that the middle West will control the nomination in the Republican national convention.

Isadora Duncan Is Killed As Scarf Is Caught in Auto

Noted Dancer Is Dragged From Car and Her Neck Broken When Garment Becomes Entangled in Wheel of New Vehicle.

Had Expressed Fear of an Accident Shortly Before Mishap at Nice, Where She Was Taking Driving Lessons on Promenade.

Nice, France, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—Isadora Duncan, the American dancer, was killed in an automobile accident at 9:40 o'clock tonight.

She was trying out a new automobile on the promenade Des Anglais, when a gust of wind blew a long scarf which she was wearing around her neck over the side of the car. It became entangled in one of the wheels and dragged the dancer out of the machine into the roadway. Her neck was broken.

The dancer's body was removed to St. Roch Hospital. At the time of the accident Miss Duncan was accompanied by a newspaper woman, Mary Desto Parks, who came to see her with reference to the publication of her memoirs.

In a conversation with a correspondent of the Associated Press yesterday, Miss Duncan said: "For the first time I am writing for money; now I am frightened that some quick accident might happen."

His premonition of her doom was only too true. A French chauffeur was teaching her to drive the new car.

MAN KILLED, 4 INJURED IN CRASH NEAR ACCOTINK

Collision of Auto With Van Fatal to R. E. Lombard, of Capital.

WOMAN SERIOUSLY HURT

Rollin E. Lombard, 22 years old, of 802 Maryland avenue northeast, was killed and four other persons were injured when a moving van was in collision with Lombard's automobile at the foot of a hill on the outskirts of Accotink, Va., late last night.

Miss Sallie Noxon, of 1748 M street northwest, and Randolph Sheppard, of Occoquan, Va., who were in Lombard's car, are in a serious condition at the Alexandria Hospital as a result of the accident.

Minor injuries were received by V. A. Jones, of Baltimore, whose furniture the van was transporting from that city to Weems, Va., and by William Newman, colored, assistant driver of the truck. They were treated at the Alexandria Hospital.

Lombard, who was taken from the wreckage of the car and the truck, was taken to the hospital at Fort Humphreys for treatment. After being given first aid, he was taken on to Alexandria Hospital, but he died en route.

Lombard was taken from the Fort hospital to the city institution with Miss Noxon and Sheppard in the automobile of A. G. Kline, of Baltimore.

According to C. Harden, of Baltimore, driver of the truck, he was moving along the road into Accotink, when the Lombard automobile started up the hill. The two cars collided head on. The truck was upset by the force of the collision and the touring car was almost demolished.

Lombard was a draftsman in the Navy Yard.

FORMER KAISER WARNS OF AWFUL WAR BY 1937

May Last Only a Few Hours; Unprepared Nation Will Be Exterminated.

CAN TELL WAY TO PEACE

(Special Cable Dispatch.)
Berlin, Sept. 14.—Former Kaiser Wilhelm foresees another war in 1937, he told a correspondent of the Copenhagen Dagens Nyheder in an interview today in which, he asserted he could show the world the road to peace.

"While ministers with olive branches in their hands are discussing peace, I see jealousy among the Nations steadily increasing," he is quoted as saying. "New experiments are made with U-boats, torpedoes, explosives and horrid poisons and secret discussions are carried on in the employment of poisonous gases on the oceans. Besides transoceanic flights, secret duration flights are made by planes heavily loaded with bombshells so that one must consider the possibility of being attacked suddenly."

Wilhelm informed his interviewer that several years before the outbreak of the World War, Count Zeppelin submitted to him a proposal to build 700 airships.

They boarded the bus at Akron, according to Robert D. Myers, the driver. Twenty minutes later one of the men commanded Myers to stop. Myers said, and pressed a pistol against his ribs.

A second bandit leveled a gun at Leonard Heine, partner in a New York jewelry firm. The third robber covered the score or more of passengers in the bus. No one was molested except Heine, however.

TARIFF BOARD'S PLAN TO SEND COMMITTEE TO ARGENTINA DIES

Resentment Felt Against U. S. Study of Costs Cancels Proposal.

LAW IS IMPRACTICABLE, SENATOR BORAH SAYS

French Problem Is Discussed by Mellon and Ambassador Claudel.

(Associated Press.)
Perplexities besetting American tariff affairs were added to yesterday when, because of resentment in Argentina, the tariff commission abandoned plans to send a committee to that country to investigate the cost of producing flaxseed and corn in the South American republic.

This decision was reached while the American government awaited the reply of France on the proposal to negotiate a new commercial treaty between the two countries which would remove tariff inequalities recently raised against American goods by the French duties.

While the Argentine and French situations are not along the same lines, inasmuch as one affects American laws while the other deals with French regulations, their sudden emergence into the limelight has served to stimulate tariff discussion here on the eve of a session of Congress.

Information reaching members of Congress is that the American tariff law provision providing for obtaining production costs abroad has been the source of considerable irritation, so much so that an effort probably will be made at the next session for its repeal.

Members of the tariff commission are understood to feel that they can obtain the same results by a provision directing that body to ascertain the costs of laying down foreign goods at American ports. This information, so complete, it is claimed, that it is not difficult to arrive at the approximate cost of production abroad.

Borah Holds Law Impracticable.

Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, declared yesterday that the law is impracticable and would have to be modified. The decision to abandon the inspection conference between President Coolidge and Acting Chairman Dennis, of the Tariff Commission, Tuesday Dennis conferred with Ambassador Pueyrredon, of Argentina, who described Argentine sentiment against the step as "intense."

"The Argentine government does not refuse admission to our experts," said

Heat Kills Dozen in West; Canada Reports Snowfall

Chicago, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—A heavy blanket of torrid air continued to envelop the middle West today, driving the mercury to record heights and resulting in suffering, prostrations and death.

Chicago, with a temperature of 96 degrees, led the list with seven heat fatalities. St. Louis reported four. The total deaths throughout the country was estimated at more than a dozen. Kankakee, Ill., reported 99 degrees, the hottest day of the year there.

The high mark here equaled that of yesterday and was within one degree of the record for the summer, being the highest ever set in September. While city dwellers suffered, farmers were elated over the opportunity for crops to mature.

The schools in Cincinnati were closed when the thermometer registered 96 degrees and in Chicago afternoon classes in portable school buildings were discontinued. Deatur, Ill., announced schools would close at noon each day until the heat spell was broken.

ARBITRATION PACT, DRAWN BY NANSEN, STIRS THE LEAGUE

Compulsory Arbitration Convention Is to Be Debated.

SIGNING BY OUTSIDE POWERS IS PROVIDED

Settlement of Disputes of All Kinds Included; World Court Would Decide.

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 14 (A.P.).
The League of Nations preparatory disarmament commission should hurry up its work and get something concrete accomplished toward disarmament, Count von Bernstorff, Germany's wartime ambassador to the United States, declared to the assembly committee in a brief but striking speech today.

Von Bernstorff asserted that the people of the world were beginning to say that overtures on "security" was merely an excuse for not disarming.

"The arbitration and security sections of the league protocol are still in a state of mere proposals," argued the speaker, "while nothing has been done in the line of real disarmament."

Another feature of the assembly disarmament committee's sitting was the introduction by Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, the Polar explorer, of "the draft of an optional convention for obligatory arbitration of disputes."

To Gradually "Outlaw" War.

It is designed to allow the powers, whether members of the league or not, to agree to submit their differences to arbitration in the hope that by the adherence of more powers to the convention recourse to war may be gradually "outlawed" along the line taken up in the Briand-Kellogg negotiations and propounded by United States Senator Borah and Prof. James T. Shotwell.

The proposal created intense interest in assembly circles; it will be debated on Friday and will probably be sent to the assembly's juridical committee for further study.

Dr. Nansen's recommendation would include the settlement of disputes of whatever nature arising between the signatories which have not been settled within a reasonable time by the normal methods of diplomacy. The second article stipulates that all legal disputes would be referred without special agreement to the world court of justice.

If any doubt existed as to whether the disputes were juridical in nature, and hence came under the compulsory arbitration class of the world court, that court should decide the question.

Other clauses provide that in case disputes are not settled by the world court or the council of the League of Nations, they shall be referred to arbitration by a committee of arbitrators to be constituted by the parties in dispute, failing in which the council of the league shall appoint arbitrators.

Dr. Nansen's idea is that the assembly would give its preliminary approval to his project, which then would be circulated among the governments for their observations, and that next year's assembly finally would dispose of it.

Mothers Want "Dogs" Kept From Schools

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—"Hot dog" vendors near Cleveland public school buildings parade their wares before children in such a way that an "epidemic of stomach aches" from too free eating of the hot dogs has been caused. This was the declaration today of a delegation of mothers when they appealed to police to stop the hot dog vendors from selling wares near school buildings.

Police Prosecutor Francis Douglas made an ineffectual stop to find a law which would stop sale of the tempting hot dogs near schools. He told the mothers the only thing to be done was to caution children against overeating.

WORLD FLIERS CALL TRIP OFF AT TOKYO; GIRL TO TEMPT SEA

Brock and Schlee Hold Effort to Reach Isle in Pacific Suicide.

RUTH ELDER READY FOR PARIS TAKE-OFF

Arrives at Roosevelt Field in Plane, Determined to Carry Out Plans.

Tokyo, Thursday, Sept. 15 (A.P.).—The projected flight of the American monoplane Pride of Detroit across the Pacific on its globe-circling tour was called off here today by its copilot, Edward F. Schlee and Walter S. Brock.

The decision to call off the flight followed a lengthy conference with aviation experts here and others interested in the undertaking. Many cablegrams from America urging the fliers to stop at Tokyo also carried weight. Brock and Schlee finally concluded the attempt to negotiate the Pacific would be suicide.

They will take an early boat for the United States and have their monoplane shipped home.

A cablegram from the Schlee children in Detroit begging their father, Edward F. Schlee, to think of them before he attempted to fly the Pride of Detroit over the perilous course of the Midway Islands was largely the cause of the cancellation of the trans-Pacific flight.

Ends Successful Flight.

The decision to end the flight of the Pride of Detroit at Tokyo brings to an end one of the most successful long distance flights ever made. Brock and Schlee have flown 12,275 miles since they left Harbor Grace, N. F., on August 27. Their only serious difficulty was encountered in Japan, near Omura, where they were twice forced down by bad weather. They arrived here in good health and good spirits. The plane was in good condition and they were still determined to make the attempt to fly to Midway Islands, 2,480 miles from here.

The advice the fliers received was all against tackling the Pacific leg of the trip. Hundreds of cablegrams awaited them here at the American Embassy, pleading with them to give up the flight at Tokyo. The opinion of Government and private aviation authorities here was against the flight, owing to the difficulty of locating the Midway Islands and landing if they found them.

The fliers realized the possibility of missing the islands and said they could carry gasoline enough to reach Hawaii if they failed to locate the Midways.

Miss Elder on Field.

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., Sept. 14 (A.P.).—Miss Ruth Elder, who plans a transatlantic flight, landed here late today after a 500-mile flight from Wheeling, W. Va. She was accompanied by George Haldeman, her pilot.

Despite the long flight, during which Miss Elder said she piloted the Stinson monoplane, American Girl, three-fourths of the way, the 23-year-old aviatrix did not appear fatigued. She announced that weather conditions permitting, she would take off for a nonstop flight to Paris within a few days.

Miss Elder added that she had made no local plans for a take-off. Earlier in the day control of the field passed from Rodman Wanamaker to J. J. Lannin, owner of the property. To-night Mr. Lannin announced that while he was opposed to transatlantic flights, he would not prevent Miss Elder from using the field.

George Haldeman, copilot of the plane, said the gross weight of the plane for the take-off will be 5,600 pounds. It is equipped with a Wright whirlwind motor.

"Never Even Engaged."

Miss Elder, who was said to have given her name as Mrs. Ruth Elder in applying to Federal Court officials in Wheeling, W. Va., for a passport and would offer no explanation for the use of the prefix, tonight stated emphatically that she never had been married. "Why, I've never even been engaged," she added.

She said she had made no plans for the future after her projected flight to Paris, excepting that she would not attempt a return flight. She told newspaper men that she wouldn't even talk about a return flight and that she planned to return by boat. While awaiting favorable weather for a take-off she said she would reside in Garden City, Long Island, to be near her plane.

Haldeman said that the plane had been put through all of its tests, but that he and Miss Elder expected to fly it tomorrow and Friday in order to make minor adjustments.

Givon Defers Flight.

Paris, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—Leon Givon has definitely decided not to attempt a transatlantic flight in his plane, the Bluebird, during 1927, the Farman Co., builders of the plane, announced today following a conference with the pilot. Ocean flying at this season in the year, especially since no good weather is in prospect immediately, has

PUSHCART MAN STEALS $50,000 JEWELRY LOAD

New York Salesman Says Helper Made Off With Stock of Rings and Watches.

WAGON FOUND ABANDONED

A colored pushcart man yesterday robbed Albert M. Stern, New York jewelry salesman, of jewelry valued at $50,000, the loot including 2,300 rings, set with diamonds and other stones, and 250 gold watches, police were informed.

The drayman had been entrusted by the salesman with the jewelry to be carried around to different stores as samples, declared Stern, who is employed by the Untermyer, Robbins Co., of 20 West Forty-seventh street, New York.

Shortly after Stern informed police of the robbery yesterday afternoon, the negro's pushcart was found abandoned near Eleventh and G streets northwest.

The robber was hired by Stern at the "pushcart stand" on E street near Eleventh street northwest shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Stern, who has been a salesman for 27 years, had been in the habit of entrusting his wares in the care of several "old-timers," who have catered to salesmen stopping at the Harrington Hotel. Yesterday, however

200 BUSINESS MEN GET EAGLE VIEW OF COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Plane Flights Over Their Home Area Feature Carnival at Hoover Field.

MANY SEND FAMILIES TO GET THRILL ALSO

Double Parachute Drop by Navy Expert Makes Throng of Spectators Gasp.

Staid business men of Columbia Heights became embryo Lindberghs and Byrds in the eyes of their families yesterday at the District's first aerial carnival, held at Hoover Field, Va., under the auspices of the Columbia Heights Business Men's Association.

Tilting their hats a little more rakishly than usual and grinning broadly, more than 200 persons yesterday stepped into an airplane for the first time and were taken from the field on an aerial tour over the District.

Returning to the field after nine-minute trips, the "airmen" told their awe-stricken families that "it wasn't so bad. I wasn't scared a bit," and when proceeded to show them the views from their wives and children. Afterward they stood around the flying field for hours swapping experiences with fellow "airmen."

Commissioners Dougherty and Tal-ferro and Traffic Director William G.
Harland were spectators at the carnival, but politely refused all invitations to take a trip over the city.

Parachute Drops Thrill.

"Jimmy" Clarke, aviation chief machinist's mate of the naval air station at Anacostia, thrilled the crowd when he made two parachute jumps from an airplane during the day. Each time Clarke purposely dropped almost a thousand feet before pulling the cord which opened his parachute, and each time the crowd shouted that the parachute had failed to work. Clarke made perfect landings in the middle of the field.

Two small Waco planes and a large Fairchild cabin plane were used to take the crowds over the city. The planes were piloted by Lowell S. Harding, Stuart Relas and J. McKenny, all regular pilots at the field.

Customers began arriving at the field before 8 o'clock and it was thronged until darkness fell. The committee in charge of the event had announced that they would hold athletic events between flights, but they were unable to lure the crowds away from airplanes.

Many Embarked Secretly.

Many of those who were taking their first trip in an airplane sneaked away from their families and did not tell them they had been up until it was all over. The planes circled over the White House and the Washington Monument and then flew to Fourteenth street and Park road before returning to the field.

D. L. McCormack and T. L. Boyd, officials of the Potomac Flying Service, Inc., which operates the field, directed the flights. The committee in charge for the association was composed of B. A. Levitan, chairman; J. W. Smith, I. G. Tabor, F. L. Paylor, John R. Bradburn, J. W. Riess, A. E. Roberts, H. C. Phillips and W. F. Dismar.

Field Day Tomorrow At St. Elizabeths

The annual field day under the auspices of the District Chapter of the American Red Cross will be held at St. Elizabeths Hospital tomorrow.

ture the entertainment. Prizes contributed by local merchants will be distributed.

Permit for Bus Line May Be Reconsidered

Chairman John W. Childress, of the Public Utilities Commission, yesterday said he and his colleagues might reopen consideration of the petition of the Capital Traction Co. for permission to establish a 25 cent de luxe bus line from Cleveland Park to the business district. The commission last week granted the petition.

Since notice of the decision, Childress says, many protests from residents along the proposed bus route have come to his office. President William F. Ham, of the Washington Railway & Electric Co., appeared at the public hearing and opposed the Capital Traction Co.'s request.

Women's City Club To Aid in Aviation

The Women's City Club last night decided to appoint a special committee to work for the advancement of aviation. The club took action following an address by Henry Berliner, Judge Mary O'Toole, president of the club, will appoint the committee at the next meeting.

Capt. Frank O. D. Hunter, Army Air Corps, addressed the club and told of efforts which the Government is making to insure safety in flying.

BOY, DISOBEYING PARENTS, IS DROWNED IN POTOMAC

POLICE RECOVER BODY

Disobedience of parental authority cost the life of Benjamin Robinson, 15 years old, of 1114 Fourth street southeast yesterday when he was drowned in the Potomac River, near the railroad bridge.

Benjamin, with five other boys, had sneaked away from home for a plunge in the river when he was seen by his comrades to throw up his arms and sink from view. His body was recovered several hours later by harbor police.

The boy, a good swimmer, swam far out into the river, according to eye-witnesses, before the accident occurred. His comrades at first thought he was trying to frighten them, but when help arrived his body had disappeared.

Benjamin left home yesterday morning to go to visit a friend where his mother later sent him word to come home. He replied that he would return soon, and the next word received by her was brought by police from the Fifth Precinct, who notified her of the accident. Frank Robinson, the boy's father, said that he had often warned his son to keep away from the river.

Benjamin leaves three brothers, Albert, 24 years old; Elmer, 20 years old; Arundel, 16 years old, and four sisters, Mrs. Louise Fitzgerald, 21 years old; Lucille Robinson, 8 years old; Lorraine Robinson, 5 years old, and Jane, 3 months old.

The other members of the swimming party, according to the police, were Donald Fry, 516 K street southeast; Joseph Wood, 105 Third street southeast; and Joseph, Dominic and James Mainoni, of 708 Sixth street southeast.

Fugitive Enters Home To Hide, Then Steals

A negro sought by police following the crash yesterday of a stolen automobile, was chased so vigorously that he broke into the home of Joseph D. Denet, 918 East Capitol street, in an effort to escape. When he broke out of Denet's home some hours later, he took a suit of Denet's clothes with him. He left blood marks and a displaced pair of shoes as mementoes. The negro's companion, who was with him when the stolen car hit another at Eighth and A streets, also succeeded in escaping after a chase. The men had been found on the street, apparently unconscious after the accident, but the screaming of the police sirens started them off.

CATHOLIC PRELATES OF MEXICO REFUSE TO ALTER POSITION

Bishop Diaz Tells Convention
No Concessions Will Be Made for Return.

STA FOR RELIGIOUS LIBERTY IS MAINTAINED

Persecution in Southern Republic Has Caused Exodus of Mexicans to This Country.

Emphatic denial that the Catholic bishops exiled from Mexico have made any concessions in order to be permitted to return to Mexico was made on their behalf by the Right Rev. Pascual Diaz, Bishop of Tabasco, Mexico, at the annual convention of bishops yesterday at Catholic University, He said:

"With regard to various reports in the press of the United States that the bishops of Mexico, the great majority of whom have been deported, have made any concessions in order to be permitted to return, we wish to state clearly and emphatically that the bishops have made no concessions of any kind. They stand, as they have stood from the beginning, for the principles of religious liberty, for the rights of the church of Christ to live and to function as the church."

Will Not Sacrifice Honor.

"Naturally as lovers of our native land we wish to return to her, and we would do all we can to return except to make any sacrifice of her honor and our own, any yielding of those principles which are the security of her permanent well-being."

The Mexican bishops who have not been deported are hiding in isolated parts of Mexico, many of them in the mountain fastnesses, and generally among their own flocks, who yield them protection and warning of the approach of troops, it was stated by bishops at the conference.

The persecution of Catholics in Mexico has stimulated the influx of Mexicans into the United States, it was said. The Right Rev. John J. Cantwell, Bishop of Los Angeles, reported that there are now 250,000 Mexicans in Los Angeles. Of course, there was a steady influx of Mexicans into this country right along. However, the severity of the Calles regime toward the Catholics has caused a noticeable increase in the migration, it was said, and border cities are facing difficult problems created by the increase in the number of Mexicans.

Message from the Pope.

The Right Rev. Diaz delivered a message from the bishops of Mexico at the morning session of the conference. His message was one of good will and understanding. "Our Holy Father, the Pope, has authorized me to use his name in saying to you, and to my brothers, the Mexican bishops, that his advice to us is that we unite ourselves together," he said. The union so brought about would have the effect of bringing about good will between the two governments, he said.

Reports were made by the heads of the various departments at the conference session. These reports will be discussed today, the final day of the convention. Fifty-six bishops from all over the country, four archbishops, and Cardinals Hayes, of New York; O'Connell, of Boston, and Mundelein, of Chicago, are attending the conference.

Deadline Is Drawn On Straw Hats Today

Regardless of the condition of the weather straw hats must today. For a dictum of fashion and domestic commerce, the annual edict today, and man, ordinarily scornful of the haste with which milady follows style's caprice, will calmly submit.

But the significance of September 15 as the date for the demise of the straw hat has disappeared to a certain extent, particularly among the younger men, many of whom during the entire summer have worn knockabout felt hats or have gone about with their locks bared to the sun.

PROPOSAL IS REFUSED

Increase in Height Limit Permitted for Arcadia Athletic Auditorium.

The zoning commission yesterday disapproved ten of seventeen proposed changes of property classification after hearing arguments at an all-day hearing in the district building.

Interest centered in a contest among residents of Connecticut avenue northwest, between Calvert street and Cathedral avenue, as to which block should be changed from residential to commercial area. The commission cut the controversy short by decreasing none of the property should be changed.

Refusal also met a request to raise the height restriction from 60 to 90 feet in the Woodward property in Connecticut avenue between Wyoming avenue and Kalorama road, for the purpose of erecting an apartment building. The Arcadia Athletic Auditorium project was facilitated, the commission approving a requested increase of height limit on part of the lot from 60 to 90 feet. ## DEWEY WARNS DISTRICT OF MALL BUILDING BILLS

Treasury Official Writes Sewer Moving Required Must Be Paid For by Citizens.

WORK BEGINS NOV. 15

The first of the bills for underground work to be paid by the District taxpayers, although the work is for the Federal Government's building program in the Pennsylvania Avenue-Mall triangle, was thrust on the Commissioners by the Treasury Department yesterday.

It is necessary for you at your own expense," was the language of a letter from C. S. Dewey, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, received by the Commissioners yesterday calling attention to required changing of sewer arrangements for the House of Detention and stating that excavation west of Fourteenth street and south of E street for the new building of the Department of Commerce would begin November 15.

The letter said: "Referring to the proposed new building for the Department of Commerce, it is the intention soon to make a contract for excavation which involves the land between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets south of E street close to the temporary building (Treasury Annex No. 2).

"On this property there is located a building which, although under the control of the Treasury Department, is occupied by the House of Detention of the District of Columbia. As it is understood that this building can not be vacated immediately, the Treasury Department will consent to postpone the excavation of this part of the site and leave enough space around the building to give access thereto temporarily."

"However, the sewer connection to this building is with a large sewer on the east side of the site, and it is necessary to have other utility lines on that street connected to the House of Detention. As it is intended to include the excavation of D street in the contract it is necessary for you, at your own expense, to make other connections and it is requested that this be done before November 15, when it is intended to start the excavation."

Cake to Police Judge on

"Still 40," Judge Mattingly's familiar reply to all inquiries regarding his age, was inscribed in icing on a birthday cake presented him by Judge George H. Macdonald in behalf of the courthouse staff. Forty candles topped the icing. The hard wooden benches at the front of the old courtroom were decorated with flowers.

Clerk of Court F. A. Sebring, chosen as spokesman for the courthouse staff, paid tribute to Judge Mattingly's eight years on Police and Municipal Court benches, the leniency of his verdicts and his just decisions. Judge Mattingly's voice choked slightly as he attempted to reply. Judge McMahon, but was in time for the reception in the judicial chambers which followed the party.

CLINE SENTENCED TO A YEAR IN JAIL; GUEST WAS KILLED

Novelist Changes His Plea to Guilty of Manslaughter in Irwin Slaying.

ACTION TAKEN AS STATE
WAITS TO START TRIAL

Men Had Quarreled Violently
Before the Shooting,
Coroner Learns.

Rockville, Conn., Sept. 14 (A.P.).—Leonard L. Cline, novelist and author, today changed his plea of not guilty to an indictment of murder in the degree in killing his house guest, Wilfred P. Irwin, and pleaded guilty to manslaughter. The change came when the State was ready to present the evidence. The State accepted the plea and Judge Edward M. Yeomans imposed a year's sentence in the Tolland County Jail and a fine of $1,000. The end of the case came with unexpected abruptness. The jury was completed late yesterday afternoon, the fourth day, and everything was in readiness for State's Attorney T. F. Noone to make his opening address to the jury. Interest in which was keen because at no time had he given an intimation of what evidence he had in reserve. Mrs. Irwin, the widow, and Mrs. Cline and Cline's sister, Mrs. Wierengo, were in the well-filled courtroom.

The court was delayed after its opening because of the conference in which the defense counsel took part. Immediately after it the defense counsel was asked by the clerk if he wished to change his plea. He turned to his counsel and, after conversation, in a voice scarcely audible replied, "Yes." Then came the new plea and the sentence by Judge Yeomans.

Prof Irwin Grasps His Hand.
One of the first to grip Cline's hand after the sudden climax was Prof. George J. Irwin, of Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., brother of the slain man.
"No hard feelings," I hope," Cline said.
"No, Leonard," Irwin told the man who had befriended his brother, Wilfred. "We never sought revenge."
Wilfred's widow, Mrs. Jane Irwin, who, although in Rockville since the plea, had been in court today for the first time, sat at one side of the courtroom, a depressed figure in black.
Mrs. Cline went over to Mrs. Irwin and the two women embraced, smiling at one another through tears.

Will Remain in County Jail.
Cline will serve the year in the county jail where he has been since his arrest in May. During his detention he kept at his books and finished one novel, had another under way and wrote a number of poems.
Irwin, long a friend of Cline, had been at the latter's house for several weeks. On the morning of May 16 ambulance drivers called from Williamson to carry away a wounded man found Irwin on the ground dying from a gunshot wound in the stomach. He was removed to a hospital, where Cline gave a pint of his blood in an infectious operation to save the dying man. Cline was arrested and charged with committing the crime.

The coroner investigated and learned that two weeks before the crime the pair had quarreled violently at that

CLINE HAD COMPLAINED TO THE STATE POLICE AFTER RECEIVING A SEVERE BEATING AT THE HANDS OF HIS FRIEND, IRWIN

Mrs. Irwin told the coroner that she had been at the house a few hours before the shooting. She said that she feared her husband.

The coroner, reconstructing the events on the night of the crime, expressed the opinion that after the two men had placed Mrs. Irwin on a train for New York they had bought liquor and started for the house. About a mile south of the farm, the truck in which they were riding, hit a tree and Irwin, after investigating the damage, wandered on alone. Cline followed some time later and on reaching the farm house, according to the coroner's theory, obtained a shotgun, returned to the yard and discharged several shots, three of which went through a window, and the fourth through the fifth, fired at close range, into Irwin's stomach.

Mrs. Irwin told the coroner that as far as she knew, Irwin was not jealous of her husband, but that he "had had" lucubrations about other men when he was drinking.
Cline is 37 years old and has been twice married. His first wife, who divorced him, now lives in Baltimore. His second wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Gridley, of Detroit.

LEGION MEN IN FRANCE FIND PRICES TOO HIGH

Many Forced to Cable Home for Funds; Paris Dearer
Than America.

SOME ARE STARTING BACK

Paris, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—With the many S. O. S. calls being sent home by Legionnaires in France, the two special cable offices established in the legion's headquarters at Cours de la Reine on the boulevards of the Seine, are receiving a real necessity. Many of the legionnaires have found Paris prices higher than those at home and have discovered that the sum thought necessary for two weeks in France vanished in less than a week.

One visitor, who had $1,000 with him, after a week's stay, found it quickly melted away in seeing sights of Paris. He is returning home Saturday unable to stay for the convention week. "I'll send back home," he said.

Besides the actual legion offices in the big barracks near the Seine, the legionary army has established with doughnuts and coffee at "home prices" and the Knights of Columbus with everything at cost. The legionnaires are manned by men and women who saw service with the American Expeditionary forces ten years ago.

The American Legion, which has a headquarters hospital where the only calls so far are reported to have been for bromo seltzer after a hard night in the barracks.

The American Legion also has a large room filled with reference books for the studious pilgrims and the legionary newspaper, which is being published by the legion, is being distributed to their sisters from the legion.

Fearing Surgery, Woman Takes Poison.
Disinfectant at the prospect of an operation, Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, 24 years old, of 1414 V street northwest, took poison yesterday morning, and was taken to Casualty Hospital, and later returned to her home. She had been suffering from ill health for some time, her husband told police.

Thieves Steal Prescription Whisky.
Breaking open two doors, thirty thieves yesterday morning entered the Eagle Pharmacy, 2300 Fourteenth street northwest, and stole six pints of prescription whisky. Dr. John J. Farrelly, of 1414 V street northwest, Precinct, Dr. Reitz stated that nothing else was taken.

ARNSTEIN IS DIVORCED; ALIENATION SUIT NEXT

Fannie Brice to Accuse New York Woman of Social Importance, She Says.

CHILDREN TO ACTRESS

Chicago, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—Fannie Brice, the comedienne, and Jules "Nicky" Arnstein, New York promoter, whose loyalty to each other in the time of adverse vicissitudes once stamped them as ideal lovers, today were separated by divorce.

The action was brought by the musical comedy star, who charged her husband with infidelity and incompatibility. Arnstein, although denying the charges through his attorney, did not contest the action.

Mrs. Brice told the court that they loved each other as much as ever, but that for the interest of their happiness it was best that they should part.

Mrs. Brice, who lavished loyalty upon her husband when he was committed to Leavenworth penitentiary several years ago for a New York bond theft, announced that as an aftermath of the divorce action, she would file an alienation suit against a New York woman of social importance. Neither Mrs. Brice nor her attorney, Benjamin Ehrlich, would divulge the name of the defendant in the promised suit.

Mrs. Brice testified that she married "Nicky" in 1919 and that they had separated three months ago. She said that she visited a Chicago hotel some time ago and found her husband in the company of another woman, whose name was not revealed. Hotel employees corroborated her story. She also said that her asserted incompatibility was due largely to her husband's development of an "inferiority complex" after she had an operation on her nose. He told her, she said, that the operation had made her too beautiful and that she was too uncomfortable in her presence.

On Miss Brice's testimony that she received more than an ample income from her theatrical efforts, the court gave her custody of their two children. She did not demand nor receive an alimony stipulation.

Arnstein, after a conference with his attorney, Joseph J. B. Kelly, who was made to his wife's charges, including that of the development of an "inferiority complex," left for St. Louis last night on a business trip.

TYPHOON-TIDAL WAVE

Kumamoto Province, Japan,
Reports 2,300 Injured and 700 Houses Wrecked.

Tokyo, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—Four hundred persons are dead, 2,300 injured and 700 houses destroyed in Kumamoto prefecture, island of Kyushu, in consequence of yesterday's typhoon and tidal wave, reports to the Japanese home office stated today.

In Fukuoka, Nagasaki and Kanagawa prefectures, reports from several sources said, numerous houses were inundated and damaged.

Police at Kumamoto estimate that 270 persons were killed, including a ten-foot tidal wave swept in, submerging about 1,000 houses and destroying half that number. The suburbs were greatly damaged, the police report, but, although numerous casualties are feared, definite figures thus far are lacking.

At Yatsushiro the tidal wave washed some hundreds of houses from their foundations. The inmates climbed to the roofs, crying for help. Numerous persons were drowned, the police report, but the casualties are unknown.

The tail of the typhoon struck Tokyo yesterday, blowing down several houses in the low-lying sections were flooded. Thirty children were injured when the roof of a schoolhouse was blown off.

2 Liquor Raids Made By Virginia Officials

Sweeping through Fairfax County in nearby Virginia yesterday, Federal and State prohibition officers, assisted by Sheriff Harvey M. Cross, seized a 1,000-gallon still and 247 gallons of whisky and destroyed about 5,000 gallons of mash, near Franconia, while another party swooped down on the vineyards of O. I. Nigh, near West Falls Church, and seized 450 gallons of alleged wine and about 200 gallons of mash.

The party which made the whisky seizure made no arrest owing to absence of the still operators. Deputy Prohibition Administrator Robert D. Ford and Revenue Agent B. N. Quinn, however, assert they purchased two gallons of alleged grape wine from the Nigh place. They say the purchase was made early in the afternoon and that they returned later to make the seizures.

British Princes Home From Trip to Canada

Southampton, England, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—The Prince of Wales, looking for a change of scene, stepped ashore from the express of Scotland here this afternoon ending his trip to Canada. He was accompanied by Prince George. The prince had expressed the wish that his arrival should be as quiet as possible and the dock authorities consequently had restricted admission to the quay so the crowd was not as large as usual on such occasions.

WEST VIRGINIA WOMAN IS DRUGGED AND ROBBED

Miss Cordie Harvey, Charleston, Victim of Attack on a Visit to New York.

TWO MEN ARE ARRESTED

Special to The Washington Post.

New York, Sept. 14.—The arrest of two youthful waiters revealed today how a chance inquiry made by a wealthy young woman from West Virginia led to a jewelry robbery plot that came near costing her her life, and did deprive her of jewelry valued at $1,000 at the Hotel Martineau, Broadway, and Thirty-second street last Saturday night.

The prisoners describe themselves as Edward Kelly, 22, and Paul Jeffries, 23, both living in a Brooklyn rooming house. Kelly later confessed, saying he had bought the chloroform with which to stupefy the victim, by a friend who administered it to her, police said.

The victim of the robbery was Miss Cordie Harvey, 25, whose family is from Charleston, W. Va. She came here two weeks ago on her first sight-seeing tour of the metropolis, and went to the Hotel Martineau, Broadway, and Thirty-second street last Saturday night.

About ten days ago she wanted to go to the City Hall postoffice and, outside her hotel, asked the first person she met for directions. Police say it was Jeffries. A day or two later she was leaving the hotel when a man spoke to her. It was Jeffries, who reminded her that he had directed her to the postoffice.

Either the youth was watching Miss Harvey, or she was watching him, for a day or two later, when she was dining in a restaurant further up town on Broadway, he spoke to her again from behind her table. Again she was Jeffries.

According to the police theory, Jeffries had noticed the jewelry she was wearing, and had planned to rob her. He had valued at $1,125, another worth $250, a small one, worth $75; a platinum wrist watch and a necklace of artificial pearls valued at $100.

Kelly, police say, registered at the Martineau Saturday for "Mr. and Mrs. Bently" explaining his wife was in the city. The evening Jeffries accosted Miss Harvey on the hotel balcony, remarking she looked lonesome and asking her to meet him at a restaurant, where he was to be waiting.

Jeffries, who was waiting, was induced to go to the room in which the stranger's wife supposedly was dressing. There she was seized by a knife and a chloroform-soaked piece of lingerie held over her face, despite her struggles, until she lost consciousness.

After her unconsciousness had lasted an hour and she was found stripped of her jewels and revived, Miss Harvey identified both prisoners.

Special to The Washington Post.

Winchester, Va., Sept. 14.—Robert Madigan, 30 years old, was shot and killed late today by his younger brother, Leo, who also attacked his father, John Madigan, with a shotgun and beat him over the head with the weapon in a field on their farm near Double Toltage.

The father was attacked when he tried to disarm his son. He regained consciousness when the father and Robert were playing a field when Leo appeared. The elder Madigan and his wife have been living apart for some time, and the children only Robert remained with the father. The others going with their mother. An argument over the domestic situation arose and was followed by the shooting.

Reports from a neighborhood said Leo's brothers, William and Edward, endeavored to persuade him to surrender while a crowd of farmers surrounded him, but that he finally drove them off.

3 SMITH BABIES MIXED IN HOSPITAL, IS CLAIM

Sam Smiths Do Not Want
Girl; Demand Boy Be Given to Them.

OTHER SMITHS PROTEST

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—The alleged shuffle of Smith babies at Fairview Hospital, which has resulted in a habeas corpus writ by Mr. Sam Smith, Mrs. Sam Smith to force the hospital to give them a baby boy instead of the girl they now have, today promised further complications in case they win their suit.

For, in addition to Mrs. Sam Smith's child, three other babies were born at the hospital about the same time, two of them having the parental name of Smith.

And the mothers of all three of these babies said today they are satisfied they have their own offspring, talked to "never never give them up."

The infant which Mrs. Sam Smith nurses at the hospital is known only in the records by the label, "Baby Smith, female."

But neither Mr. nor Mrs. Sam Smith have parental inclinations toward "Baby Smith, female," nor do they want her.

Instead, they are asking the hospital authorities for "Baby George Smith," who they claim, was born to them. Mr. Smith said the attending physician told him the baby was a boy and made out a birth certificate giving the male sex. He said the doctor had given him a husband-to-be with the license.

Then, suddenly, "Baby George" became "Baby Smith, female."

It was to a mixup in records, for the Sam Smiths never had a "Baby George," hospital authorities declared.

Common Pleas Judge Carl V. Weyto, who is the modern Solomon who has decided the percentage of the infant girl, he said he will order blood tests, if necessary.

Because the chief nurse who attended Mrs. Smith is on vacation, Judge Weyto adjourned the hearing until September 22. If Mrs. Smith is still in the hospital, it will be resumed at her bedside.

which was speeding along, when one of the rear wheels struck a curb, and the car was thrown into the air and caught in the front wheel. The car tightened about her neck and in a moment she was dead.

The body was removed from St. Roch Hospital to her studio tonight.

The medical examination showed that Miss Duncan's spine had been cleanly broken by the red silk scarf. No other marks were apparent.

Paris Singer, of the sewing machine family, and friend of Miss Duncan, and Mrs. Parks, British journalist, who was helping Miss Duncan with her book, are making the arrangements for the funeral.

Fate seemed to have caused automobile accidents to plague Miss Duncan. In 1913 she was seriously injured in an automobile accident, and in May of 1924 was knocked unconscious when her car was in collision with another in Lexington, England.

Isadora Duncan was a native of California, and the daughter of Charles Duncan, but during the early part of her life she lived in various parts of the world, including London, Paris and New York.

She had traveled to virtually all parts of the world, and during her life she had experiences which took her to the highest pinnacle of artistic success and the lowest of poverty in which she had spent most of her time in Europe, particularly in Berlin, Paris and at Nice.

Driver 'Born Unlucky,' Without Permit; Fined

Ernest Goldberg, 1201 Q street northwest, was born under an unlucky star, he told Judge Gus A. Schuldt when arraigned in Police Court last night on charges of no permit and defective lights. That is why he hasn't driven a car in a year, he explained to Policeman B. C. Black, of the Traffic Bureau, who brought him into court.

Goldberg exhibited to Judge Schuldt scars from a crash which marred his last attempt to negotiate Washington traffic. He swore that he had not touched a steering wheel until last night, when, acting on impulse, he spun around the block "for old time's sake." Goldberg's untimely fate was still twinkling. Judge Schuldt imposed $20 in fines.

Wreckage on Coast Held Part of Glider

London, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—Air ministry experts who have examined the wreckage of an airplane found several days ago on the beach near Newquay, are understood to have decided that it is not that of any of the missing transatlantic planes, says a dispatch from Newquay to the Evening News.

Part of the wreckage and the rudder, covered with a silver-gray fabric, are being brought to London for further examination. A private message from Newquay says that the wreckage has been identified as that of a glider.

REFUSED BY 2 PASTORS, MAN, 60, WEDS GIRL, 18

Third Minister Performs Ceremony While Bride's Young Brother Weeps.

WANTED HOME, SHE SAYS

Special to The Washington Post.

Hagerstown, Md., Sept. 14.—After two ministers here had refused to unite them, James M. Mauman, who gave his age as 60, nobbled to the altar last night with Miss Ruth Cubbage, 18 years old, and the Rev. W. L. Rensberg, of Funkstown, performed the ceremony.

The couple received a marriage license here yesterday. The bridegroom, leaning heavily on a cane, walked into the church with his bride, who was 60, while his prospective bride sat in an automobile outside with her brother awaiting the return of her husband-to-be with the license.

A social service worker of this city approached Miss Cubbage while she was waiting and asked her why she was to be married to the aged man. The girl explained that she had no home, and, as Nauman offered to give her one, she had consented to become his bride.

The brother, 17 years old, weeping, told his sister he would work and support her if she would abandon the wedding plans, which she declined to do.

Nauman at this juncture returned to the machine and the party went to the home of the Rev. J. Y. Irwin, of the First Baptist Church, who refused to perform the wedding. The Rev. G. C. Carpenter, of the First Brethren Church, then also refused to marry the couple. The minister consulted the clerk of the court, who said that he could not refuse to issue the license because of the girl's age.

The Rev. Mr. Rensberg finally was persuaded to make them man and wife, after which they returned to their home at Stanley, Va.

Judge Orbison Explains His

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 14 (A.P.).—Citing the prevalent lack of veneration for laws, urging more stringent immigration enactments and giving reasons why the Klan can not support Al Smith for President, Judge C. J. Orbison, of Indianapolis, in an address here tonight emphatically denied that the Klan is either a "lawless band" or "inimicable empire."

"The Klan stands ready," he said, "to assist in making it a statutory offense for a whipping, tar-and-feathering, or any similar outrage or degradation upon human rights and liberties."

Anarchy, the speaker declared, is disrespect for all laws, and "anarchy is disrespect for any law. I do not care what may be one's

Removal From Jail for Sanity Test.FIRED ON FATHER WITH
2 GUNS, SAYS COLLINSPrisoner, Who Is Student of Egyptology, Asserts he "Lost His Head."

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 14 (A.P.)—William Thomas Collins, 17, who waived preliminary hearing today on a charge of murdering his father and stepmother, was held in the Roanoke Jail tonight pending grand jury investigation with the possibility that a special session might be held to investigate the case.

Removal of the prisoner to a State institution for sanity observation was refused by Judge John Hart in Roanoke Court shortly after the police hearing. The judge, however, consented to an examination by alienists in the Roanoke Jail. An uncle engaged counsel for the boy.

Collins, who told authorities he was a student of Egyptology, which he hoped to make his life work, brushed aside the caution given today that his statements might be used against him, to discuss freely the double murder, police said.

Expects Electric Chair.

"I expect to get the electric chair," he was quoted in a confession. "I couldn't stand to hear them always fussing. It didn't seem like I was doing it, but of course I was. I regretted it three minutes after it happened. I lost my head."

No motive was given for the crime other than that he became angered when his parents continued a quarrel yesterday morning that began the night before, police officials said, expressing the belief that the youth was telling the truth.

Becoming enraged when the quarrel continued, the alleged confession said, the boy seized a shotgun and shot his stepmother, Mrs. June Collins, as she was preparing breakfast.

Shoots Father Twice.

The father is then said to have started down stairs and to have received a load of fine bird shot in his chest, which, however, did not inflict a mortal wound. Obtaining another shotgun and a hatchet, the youth is said to have shot his father the second time and to have struck his stepmother with the hatchet. Both were dead in a few minutes, the alleged confession said.

The boy surrendered at police station a few minutes later after first going to the Federal Building to give himself up.

He declared that he had been interested in Egyptology since he was a student in the schools of Bluefield, W. Va., where the family formerly lived. The youth professed a liking for classics and said he preferred the classics even in motion pictures.

ANNUAL PARADE IS HELD

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 14 (A.P.). The annual parade of the Grand Army of the Republic occupied the time today for their sixty-first annual encampment. Over a route a mile long, much of it a wearisome ascent of Monroe avenue, the march provided a test for limbs and bodies that long ago lost much of their vigor.

All of the veterans perhaps were slow of foot and scant of breath; not one, however, but was strong of spirit, determined to cover every foot of the path and once more pass in review before his commander in chief.

For many of the old soldiers it was the last parade; possibly it was the last parade of the G. A. R. as an organization. None but soldiers of the Civil War was permitted to participate in the march. Women, children and civilians were denied places in the line. No flags or standards, excepting the National and State flags and department and post flags, were allowed.

The line of march took the veterans from the State armory through Monroe avenue to Fulton Street Park, where Commander in Chief Frank A. Walsh and his staff reviewed the old soldiers. In the stand also were others, comrades of the marchers, disabled and unable to join them. Veterans of Illinois led the procession, followed by those from Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York and other States. Michigan, as a matter of courtesy, took up a place at the end of the line.

With the parade as today's outstanding event, log rolling for the coming election was temporarily in the background. While the names of five or six of the visiting veterans were mentioned for commander in chief when the convention opened, those of Elbridge L. Hawk, of California, and John C. Clem, of Washington, D. C., are most frequently heard today.

Clem served with a Michigan regiment and became famous as the "Drummer boy of Chancellorsville." Hawk was with the Eighteenth Ohio Infantry and was discharged as a captain.

$8,000 Embezzlement
Brings 30-Day Term

Danville, Ill., Sept. 14 (A.P.).—Thirty days in jail was the only punishment drawn by Ora G. Bradley after pleading guilty to embezzling $8,000 from the Willsville (Ill.) First National Bank, where he was assistant cashier.

Bradley made a bid to escape even this light sentence, when he secured a position at the Gary Steel Mills while at liberty under bonds, and his employer asked that he be placed on probation in his charge.

Judge Lindley, of the United States District Court, refused this plea, but made the sentence light.

Austria to Ask British
Loan of $112,000,000

Vienna, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—It was officially confirmed today that Austria is about to ask competent quarters in London for the power to borrow $112,000,000 to spread over five years for productive investments such as the electrification of the railway in the Salzburg, Vienna and Semmering sections. Road construction and the development of telegraph and cable lines also are projected.

Peel Your Face
To Youthful Beauty

Nature causes the skin to peel off in tiny, unseen particles, renewing the complexion naturally, but there comes a time when this skin shedding slows up, causing the face to be blotchy, discolored, pimply and old looking. The thing to do at such times is to assist nature by using pure mercolized wax. Get an ounce at any drug store, and use as directed. It gently but surely peels away the outer scarf skin, removing freckles, pimples, blackheads or a muddy complexion. The underneath skin is clear, young and glowing. Mercolized wax brings out the hidden beauty. To quickly remove wrinkles and other age lines, use this face lotion: 1 ounce powdered saxofite and 1 half pint witch hazel—Adv.

"O, Mrs. Nabors, won't you give me some recipes that call for lots of sour milk? You see, we took a motor trip and when we came home last night there were four days' collection of milk on our porch. My fault. I forgot to leave a note for the milkman. But, dear me, what ever shall I do with all that sour milk? But that settles it. I am going to have the grocer supply me with Milk after this. He sells Simpson's Milk and you know that is really wonderful quality. It will be just as convenient and certainly more economical to buy my Milk that way."

Bite yourself an Alphabet

Mr. Gadder simply must pretzel

The touching scene pictured above shows Mr. Gadder starting on a trip on the steam cars. He is going to Naumkeag, Mass., to buy a barrel. Being a cautious soul, Mr. Gadder is taking plenty of pretzels along to while away the two hour trip. Probably the first letters he will bite out will be the initials of the railroad:

B. & M. R. R.

Which is not so easy. But then think of the fun Mr. Gadder, a P. M. P. (Past Master Pretzeler) will have biting and eating.

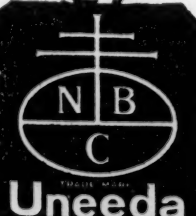

All pretzellers in good standing eat O-So-Gud Pretzels. Why? Read that name again. O-So-Guds are baked brown, baked crispy, baked good to eat and easy to digest by Uneeda Bakers.

They're good with iced drinks and with tea. With soup and with salad and with cheese. With those funny little fish and what nots that folks call hors d'oeuvres.

Give the children Uneeda Bakers' pretzels—plenty of them. Doctors approve. And don't stint your own self. You'll approve.

O-SO-GUD PRETZELS

O-So-Gud is a full grown pretzel all tied up in knots. Who tied it? Uneeda Bakers. Ask us another.

NEXT WEEK ATTRACTIONS

NATIONAL.
James Cruze's Paramount production, "Old Ironsides," begins its second and final week at the National Sunday. Laurence Stallings, author of "The Big Parade" and "What Price Glory," provided the story from which Mr. Cruze made this picture. Dealing with the exploits of the frigate Constitution during her campaign against the Tripolitan pirates, the picture presents some of the most thrilling battle scenes ever given to the screen. A love story of simple appeal and comedy of the first water, supplied by Wallace Beery and George Bancroft, are features that add to the entertainment qualities of the film.

The magnifico effect, that has been the subject of widespread comment, offers a thrill and a surprise that causes the audience to gasp. At the end of the first part of the picture the Constitution makes her appearance, and suddenly the screen is enlarged to twice its usual size and the old frigate seems to float right into the faces of the spectators. The magnifico is used also in the battle scenes, giving a wealth of detail to the encounters between the Constitution and the pirate ships at the fort at Tripoli.

KEITH'S.
Karyl Norman, "The Crook Fashion Plate," will top the bill at K. F. Keith Theater next week. He will be assisted by Bob Mamill and Jerry Green. He is said to be bringing many new and wonderful gowns and several new numbers.

Al Trahan and Vesta E. Wallace will be featured in a classic, "The Curtain Speech," written by Frank Fay. Those international singing comedians, Chain and Archer, will make merry with their "Oh, I Did Not." Countess Sonia will present her "Revue Satirique" with Alex Sherer. She is supported by a wonderful Russian cast of singers and dancers.

Jack Redmond, the golf wizard, will be seen in "A Golf Lesson." Miss Mary Marlowe will offer her "Cycle of Song Impressions." Other acts will be announced later and the usual screen features will complete the bill.

SWANEE GAYETTES.
Fall gayeties are now in full swing at Swanee, favored dance resort of the younger dancing enthusiasts.

The Swanee Synchronizers, led by Al Kameron, are presenting dancing rhythms, guivers with mischievous rhythms. Plenty of hot numbers satisfy the popular craving for music of the peppery sort, while an occasional dreamy waltz is interpolated just as a matter of variety. The beautiful new decorations of Swanee have evoked much of favorable comment. Especially noteworthy is the new "rainbow dome," which is nightly painted with varicolored lights. An outdoor effect is achieved by the use of vividly striped awnings between the pergola-like pillars that border the dance floor.

Low Summer Excursion Fares Are in effect until September 30 with return limit October 31.

Sunset Limited to California
"a train that has no rival"

so say traveled men and women—those best qualified to judge the merits of this world-famed train. Smooth action for rest and sleep, oil-burning locomotives, faultless appointments and a cuisine that delights the epicure. Interesting stopovers include New Orleans, Houston, Galveston, San Antonio, El Paso, Tucson, Phoenix, Los Angeles, and San Francisco. The Pacific Coast Empire Invites You

ELASCO.
"The Garden of Eden," has proved so successful at the Shubert-Elasco that Mr. Arch Selwyn and Manager Kipling have arranged with the New York booking offices to cancel "The Command of Love," due to open here September 19, and give a second week to the Avery Hopwood comedy. Avery Hopwood has a habit of opening his comedies in Washington and watching them develop into hits with indefinite runs. "The Garden of Eden" is following in the footsteps of its predecessors. Record-breaking attendance for this time of the year is taking place at the Elasco and it is a safe bet that the comedy will be a week standing room will be in order.

COLUMBIA.
"The Big Parade" marches on and on. Now in its second week at the Columbia, the world's greatest picture is announced for a third and final week, commencing Saturday.

Briefly, the story of "The Big Parade" centers in an American soldier, a young man, and much like every other rich man's son. In the spring of 1917, Jimmie, a young man, is enlisted and departs for service in France. The succeeding scenes show Jimmie and his buddies in a trench, a former Bowery bartender, and Slim, an ex-civilian, in the hands of the boys' billeted in rural France. Laurence Stallings, the author, is said to have conceived the original as a play, "Soldiers Three."

And then Jim meets Melisande—as played by Betty Abbott. The French girl in her wooden sabot and milkmaid's garb is a figure of loveliness. Some of the most touching scenes ever filmed are those of the making of Jim and Melisande. Then comes the advance to the front, and the lovers are separated.

EARLE.
The headline attraction at the Earle Theater, beginning next Sunday afternoon will be "Hosouta," "The Golden Idol of Paris," presented by George Chooler. High Art and exquisite cameos with a notable ensemble featuring Walter and Elizabeth Reddick, and the dancing Alice Hayward and her Bennett, with six Adelaide and Hughes girls added.

The vaudeville portion of the bill also will include Bob Murphy, "Combining Business with Pleasure," by means of fine singing voice and keen sense of humor. Hite and Reflow with Warren Boyed in a clever character hit bearing the title of "Their Back Alley," and the Texas Four "Easin' Along Ozoin' Melodies."

The Earle's photoplay feature for the new week will be Paramount's production of "Time to Love," in which the stellar role is played by the new finessing by Raymond Griffith, the high hat comedian, who in this subject is supported by Vera Veronina and cast of highest ability.

GAYETY.
"White Cargo," Leon Gordon's melodrama, will be next week's attraction at the Gayety Theater. Lewis Talbot has made no change in the cast of last season. Christine Cooper again plays Tondale, the half-breed who causes all the trouble; Robert Burns is the slow yielding Wetzell, who finally falls for the charms of Josephine; and Edward Hudson, William Marble, Denny Mulvey, John G. London, Tom G. Jones and Fungli Bunda complete the cast. Local players who missed "White Cargo" last season, and those who wish to enjoy its punch and thrills again will be glad to know of its return engagement to the Gayety Theater next week, beginning with the usual Sunday matinee.

SOME TIME IN SEPTEMBER.
Formal opening of Le Paradis Cafe for the winter season is a moveable feast, according to present announcement from the Meyer Davis office stating that this gala fiesta will be staged somewhere between September 15 and 20. The weather man, it is understood, will have the final say as to just when the cafe will be opened.

Mrs. Meyer Davis has designed a complete new decorative scheme for Le Paradis. Among the features of the plan are a "sunset canopy" of battle fabric in colors, and a brilliant studded curtain of black velvet which will veil the mural at the end of the room. The banquettes will be covered in velvet which will repeat the shade of the canopy.

Approaching end of Le Paradis roof garden season is being signaled by an extra heavy attendance of folks determined to make the most of roof gardening while it lasts. Le Paradis Band is presenting its regular sort of dance music. "Theatrical Night" continues to be a big Thursday feature.

WARDMAN PARK.
"Sentimental Tommy," the Paramount pictureization of the Barrie story with Gareth Hughes and a splendid cast, has been discovered by the Guild and will be shown for one week only at the Wardman Park Theater, beginning next Sunday night. The Guild has received dozens of requests for this picture and is happy to present it to its patrons at last.

Club St. Marks Opens.
Joint directors of the orchestra of the Club St. Marks for the season 1927-28, which begins this evening, will be John Schultz and Sam Rosey, both of whom have achieved enviable reputations in the field of instrumental music. The orchestra will number six pieces, violin, alto and tenor saxes, banjo, piano and traps.

John Schultz, violinist and ballad singer, will be the special director of the concert music which will be a feature at the club luncheons. Sam Rosey will jointly direct the orchestra at the dinner dance and supper club.

Mr. Schultz is widely known both in and around New York, and also in Florida, where he and his band made a decided hit at the Coral Gables Golf and Country Club. Sam Rosey is well known here and a favorite with the hundreds who have heard him in many important engagements in New York.

His first Washington engagement was with the old Cafe St. Marks. He directed the orchestra at the City Club for two seasons and broadcast his Washington Five over WRC.

The Club St. Marks will open this evening with a dinner dance from 6 p. m. to 1 a. m. under the management of George C. Munger, Helen Ray Hagner and Jake Kosman. Beginning tomorrow luncheon, dinner and supper reservations will be available throughout the season.

POLIT'S.
Laurence Schwab, who has given in the past such musical successes as "Captain Jinks," "The Gingham Girl," "Sweet Little Devil," and now has the most successful opera, "The Desert Song," running at the Casino Theater, New York, and "Good News," a musical comedy at the Ambassador Theater, New York, will present on Sunday, September 18, at Polit's Theater, for one week the "ace of musical comedies," "Queen High."

This excitingly funny musical play is headed by two of the best known and popular musical comedy stars in this field of entertainment—namely, Charles Ruggles and Frank McIntyre, and who are ably aided by Mildred Brown, Winnie Baldwin, Walter Craig, Helen Carrington, Gail Beverly, Jack Leslie, Eddie Davis, Lucille Moore, Jocelyn Lyle and as dainty and sparkling chorus as one would find even in a beauty contest.

Song hits follow song hit, among the more popular being "Cross Your Heart," "Don't Forget," "Everything Will Happen for the Best," "We'll Mend a Broken Heart," "My Lady," "See You, See I," and "You'll Never Know."

As will be recalled by many, this is the musical comedy that ran for 23 weeks at the Chestnut Street Opera House, Philadelphia, and the recent centennial Exposition there and then moved to the Ambassador Theater, New York, for the last time. It is a record-breaking run of one solid year.

STRAND.
Next week's stage attraction at the Strand Theater, home of musical revue, will be Rose Bernard in "Tom Tom." This attraction is presented by a company of 25 entertainers with an ensemble of 16 girls. There are said to be so many "nido spots" that it is rather difficult to determine just what is the special featured event. The production, scenic dancer, and Charles Wilson, eccentric comedian, head the cast, with Naomi Wheeler, Betty Abbott, Nan Forrest and Marion Palmer as the chief cowgirls. The producers estimate that in fourteen scenes with sixteen musical numbers. During the action of the piece a number of vaudeville specialties will be offered by the talented principals.

On the screen Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be shown "After Midnight," starring Norma Shearer and "Rage Lips" Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

RIALTO.
Reginald Denny will be seen in his latest picture, "Out All Night," at the Rialto, starting Saturday.

Denny portrays the role of a wealthy young man who meets, woos and marries a musical comedy star all in one evening or, rather, one night.

This is just the beginning of one of the funniest farce comedies that has yet been provided for the popular star. It is claimed. After the wedding the bride and groom are forced to keep their marriage a secret; and how they try to see each other on their own terms, the picture provides the hilarious entertainment.

The Henneberg Singers, four melody misses, late of Greenwich Village Follies, are the stage features. They were trained by Frank Henneberg, one of the most famous vocal teachers in America.

METROPOLITAN.
"Smile, Brother, Smile," a new First National release, directed by John Francis Dillon, will bring Jack Mulhall and Dorothy Mackall to the screen at Grandall's Metropolitan Theater next week, beginning Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. One of the most vicious comedy-dramas in which they have ever jointly appeared. The auxiliary attraction will be equally entertaining and will include a new two-reel comedy of special selection, a new issue of the specially assembled Metropolitan World Survey, reflecting the important world events of the preceding week, and the delightful contributions of the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra under the conduct of Daniel Breeskin.

"Smile, Brother, Smile" offers a story as up-to-date as tomorrow morning's paper. The principal character is a young shipping clerk whose ambition is to become a traveling salesman. His appointment to an important territory comes about through his own instrumentality in a most remarkable way. For the first week on the road he turns in an amazing number of orders. Then the subtle work of the renegade sales manager in cahoots with an opposition firm takes its toll and the young man finds it impossible to land an order. The telephone operator in the home office is much interested in the success of the salesman. The manager in which she comes to the aid of the young man and lands the biggest order in the history of the company on his books makes the story.

PALACE.
Lon Chaney in his latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Mockery," and a personally conducted tour through the land of melody, the kingdom of dance and the empire of song on the good ship "S. S. Synchronizer" is the very interesting menu to be provided patrons of Loew's Palace Theater for the week beginning next Saturday.

The ship will be manned by Al Moore and the crew of syncopating sailors with the eight singing stars and a cargo of beauties, the Chester Hale Girls, in Midnette Caper. Other features will be Dick Leiber's organ music, M-G-M News, a comedy and Loew's Palace Concert Orchestra, under the baton of Don Felice, guest conductor.

Chaney in "Mockery" plays the role of a strange, hermit-like peasant who worships a girl of the upper classes and is content to be her slave if only he can serve her. Then, by a strange turn of fate she is placed absolutely in his power. The bloodthirst and horror of the revolution rages about them. The peasant becomes a leader and, drunk with his power, he all but destroys the things he had loved. His love changes to brutality, and then the unexpected happens in a most dramatic climax and the peasant pays with his life for a disaster he could not avert.

LITTLE THEATER.
For the first time in the United States outside of New York City there will be presented in Washington next week the full-length "Variety," the famous UFA production in which Emil Jennings and Lya de Putti have the leading roles. By special arrangement with the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation the Motion Picture Guild is able to show the Berlin and Manhattan version and will present it at the Little Theater, beginning next Sunday. This is not the "Variety" shown in Washington some time ago, the Guild announces, as the version presented here was lacking many of the sequences and details of real "Variety." The picture deals with the eternal triangle—in new fashion, as only the artists of UFA could do. Jennings has the role of a trapeze artist who descends his wife for another and more beautiful performer, only to find himself deserted in turn by her when she falls in love with a fellow acrobat.

FOX THEATRE

(NATIONAL PRESS BUILDING)

A MESSAGE from ROXY

Something About the Theater!

WASHINGTONIANS might well prepare for a very pleasant surprise in the new home of entertainment that will be opened on Tuesday. No effort or expense has been spared to create what will undoubtedly be considered the finest theater in the South. It will have every advantage, comfort and luxury known to the modern theater.

The entrance is unique, inasmuch as the architects have taken advantage of the slope, and the balcony will be one short flight up and the orchestra one short flight down.

The decorations and the equipment will, I assure, meet with the approval of the most discriminating, and the service will be a distinct feature in this institution. The lighting will be in keeping with the decorative scheme, and its flexibility to conform with the mood of the presentation on the stage. The stage is modern in every respect—particularly the design to receive the attractions from the Roxy Theater in New York. The lighting plant is second to no theater in the world.

The prices are in reach of every one—40c in the afternoon, except seats in the mezzanine, which will be 75c except Saturday, Sunday and holiday matinees, when evening prices will prevail. The evening prices are 75c for the entire orchestra floor, 50c for the entire balcony, and $1.15 for the mezzanine and boxes, inclusive of war tax.

The performances will be continuous from noon to 11 at night. The doors will open at 11:30 when an organ concert will be given for one-half hour. Of course, the doors on Sunday will open at 2:30 in the afternoon and the performances commence at 3:00.

We could say, of course, a great deal more about the theater in detail, but we would much rather you come and see it and not spoil your impression by overstatement, and we do hope that each and every one of you will concur and agree that it is not only the largest and finest theater in Washington, but one of the greatest theaters in the world.

There you are.

Cordially,

Roxy

THAT'S what an Etchcraft Enlargement is. It's the picture you took yourself made more artistic, more attractive, more desirable.

The advantages of enlargements over regular-sized Kodak prints are manifold.

All the good points of your negatives are retained and emphasized, while the undesirable portions may often be eliminated. Your snapshot virtually becomes a photographic masterpiece.

BUY NOW—SAVE MONEY

RENEWED AND GUARANTEED PEERLESS!

All buyers of RENEWED PEERLESS cars are accorded the same treatment as the buyers of new Peerless models. We have carefully renewed these cars, bring- ing them up to Peerless standard. A new Peerless is serviceable for over one hundred thousand miles should one care to drive it that far—therefore, there are many, many thousands of miles of real dependable transportation left in these. A RE- NEWED PEERLESS is a better and a safer buy than a priced new car.

UNUSED TRANSPORTATION

When you buy a used car, you buy UNUSED TRANSPORTATION. When you buy a new car you buy identically the same thing—UNUSED TRANSPORTATION. Frequently, there are more miles of unused transportation in a high-grade used car than in lower priced new one. You should have no hesitancy in buying a DEPENDABLE, RELIABLE used car. The term "used car" does not necessarily mean a worn out car. Railroad locomotives, street cars and railroad coaches are properly cared for and are from time to time rebuilt, and they deliver hundreds and hundreds of thousands of miles of real transportation. Automobiles are no different and can be renewed, so the second purchaser actually receives more for his money than the first buyer. He saves freight, war tax and from one to two years' depre- ciation, which results in greater economy.

FREE INSURANCE!

During this sale you will be covered with an insur- ance policy protecting you. In the event loss of em- ployment or sickness affects your income, your monthly payments will be taken care of by the insurance com- pany and THEY DO NOT HAVE TO BE MADE UP LATER. With this wonderful feature you should have no fear you can not keep your payments up.

LET'S TRADE CARS!

During this sale we will make a liberal allowance on your present car. You may not need any cash. Your automo- bile may be enough to meet the down payment on the car you select. Now is the time to BUY AND SAVE MONEY.

IMPORTANT

DEALERS! GARAGEMEN! MECHANICS!

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE IN NEW YORK, Registrar.

The following has been authorized by His Excellency, Dr. Esteban Jaramillo, Minister of Finance and Public Credit of the Republic of Colombia:

Colombia, adjoining the Isthmus of Panama, and with an area greater than the combined areas of France and Germany, is the South American country nearest to the great centers of population and trade in the Eastern and Western Hemispheres. Under a stable government for over twenty years, Colombia's progress and development have been notable.

Colombia's national debt, which in 1922 was $46,948,000, had been reduced by June 30, 1926, to $23,407,000, a reduction of $23,541,000, or over 50%. On completion of this financing, total national debt, both internal and external, will approximate $46,000,000. This is equivalent to about $6 per capita, which is among the lowest for any of the countries of the world, and compares with estimated figures for Argentina of $109 and for Uruguay of $125. When compared with an estimated wealth per capita of over $750, with the volume of its foreign trade and its annual income, it can be seen that the debt of the Republic is indeed small.

This unusual situation is largely explained by the substantial annual surpluses of ordinary revenues over ordinary expenditures shown in the following table:

	Revenues	Expenditures	Surplus
1923.....	$32,425,591	$21,440,345	$10,985,246
1924.....	32,576,680	23,179,928	9,396,752
1925.....	45,005,038	29,874,067	15,130,971
1926.....	54,163,088	46,372,006	7,791,082

In the years 1922 to 1926 the Republic has spent over $57,000,000 upon railroad construction and other public works.

In addition to the surplus of ordinary revenues, the Republic has also received, under a treaty with the United States, $25,000,000, which has been devoted entirely to public works and constructive enterprises, including $6,000,000 initial capital for the Bank of the Republic and the Agricultural Mortgage Bank.

International trade has more than doubled from 1922 to 1926, amounting in the latter year to over $218,000,000.

At June 30, 1927, the gold reserves of the Bank of the Republic (the bank of issue) were approximately 100% of its notes in circulation. The Colombian peso, with a gold parity of $9733, is at present quoted at a premium, being the only South American currency, except that of Argentina, of which this can be said.

The country has vast resources of coal, petroleum, gold, platinum, copper, iron and other minerals, and is the world's chief source of supply of emeralds. The possession of these resources, especially coal and petroleum (still largely unexploited) is of especial importance in view of the proximity of the country's ports to the Panama Canal.

Colombia is the world's second largest coffee producer, and the largest producer of "mild" coffee, which commands a premium over Brazilian grades. Bananas, tobacco, cotton and sugar are grown, while the production of live stock is an important and growing industry.

American companies have large investments in the mining, oil, fruit and live stock industries of Colombia, total American investments there being estimated at over $200,000,000.

In 1922 Colombia, recognizing its paramount need of an adequate, unified transportation system, enacted legislation to meet the situation, in pursuance of which thorough studies have been made with the assistance of eminent international engineers. As a result, the proceeds of this loan are to be used in accordance with a comprehensive plan for the extension and unification of existing railroad systems, for the development of port works and the deepening and canalization of rivers, as well as for the repayment of a short term loan of $10,000,000 granted this year, the proceeds of which were used for the same purposes. The present Government-owned railroads have reported operating profits in each of the past six years, the figure increasing from less than $900,000 in 1921 to over $3,000,000 in 1926.

These bonds constitute the direct obligation of the Republic of Colombia, secured by its full faith and credit. The Republic agrees, among other things, that if while any bonds of the present loan are outstanding, it shall secure any obligations by a lien or charge upon any national income or revenues, the bonds of this loan shall be secured in like form, equally and ratably with such obligations.

All conversions of pesos into dollars in the foregoing have been made at parity of exchange.

The Republic has agreed to make application to list these Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

These Bonds are offered for subscription subject to allotment. We reserve the right to reject subscriptions in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount applied for, and to close the subscription books at any time without notice. Interim receipts of National Bank of Commerce in New York will be deliverable in the first instance. Legal matters subject to approval of Messrs. Sullivan & Cromwell, New York City, and, as to questions of Colombian law, of Dr. Pedro M. Carreño, Bogotá, Colombia.

BRISK GAINS AND LOSSES

FEATURE DAY'S TRADING

Shorts in General Motors Are Hard Hit as Shares Soar;
Rails Under Pressure.

CALL MONEY 4 PER CENT

Special to The Washington Post.
New York, Sept. 14.—Numerous broad gains were scored by a selected list of stocks today, accompanied by the attainment of many new price peaks. But, under cover of the buying movement, there was much profit taking, with the result that substantial reversals occurred in about every division of the market. The drop in General Motors was particularly sharp, and the market was very active at times and highly irregular. The day's turnover was well over 2,750,000 shares.

The outstanding feature of the session was the severe drubbing handed to the shorts in General Motors shares, they having to pay as high as 9 points above last night's closing price to cover commitments. Bullish operators in the stock market were helped by an announcement by the stock exchange authorities that contracts on the "when issued" stock must be settled on Friday, September 23. That meant that those who sold the stock short must buy it in before that date.

It is a fact that the stock market is becoming more and more liquid, and the situation is very easy. The old stock today advanced steadily from 255 to 263 and closed at 262 1/2, a net gain of 8 1/2 points; while the "when issued" stock moved forward 3 points from the opening of 17 1/2 to 20 1/2, a net gain of 3 points. The turnover in the latter amounted to 467,000 shares and that in the former to 17,000 shares. The combined figures represented about 25 per cent of the entire dealings of the day.

Among the issues to make important advances during the day, many of them going to new high price levels, were Du Pont, up 1/2 point; net, 26 1/2; and the common and preferred B stock, 7 1/2; United States Cast Iron Pipe, 8 1/2; American Radiator, 8 1/2; National Tube, 8 1/2; Denison, 8 1/2; American Shoe, 8 1/2; American Radiator, 8 1/2; Central of New Jersey, 6 1/2; Gulf States, 2 1/2; Hudson Bros., 3 1/2; Stone Island, 2 1/2; Hudson Motors, 2 1/2; International Paper, 6 per cent preferred, 7 1/2; Manatt Sugar, 3; Continental Western, 2 1/2; Coca Cola, 2 1/2; and American Water Works, new, 2.

Sharp declines occurred in Houston Oil, Gabriel Snubbers, Briggs Manufacturing, Goodrich and a few other issues, extending to 5 1/2 points, but as a rule reversals throughout the list were under 2 points.

Several stocks were pushed into high ground in the early trading, which, however, finished the day with but fractional gains or in the minus column. In this category were such issues as American Telephone & Telegraph, International Telephone & Telegraph, Copper, International Harvester, Freeport, Texas, Texas Gulf Sulphur and several others.

In the foreign many railroad shares were taken freely at advancing prices, but strong profit-taking appeared in this group, causing many of the issues to lose their early gains and quit with moderate losses on the day. Atchafalaya, Baltimore & Ohio, Canadian Pacific, Kansas City Southern, Western Maryland, Wash and a few others were in this class. On the other hand, gains extending to nearly 3 points were scored by the New York Central, Texas & Pacific, Reading, Northern Pacific, Nickel Plate, Missouri Pacific, Great Northern, Chicago Northwestern and others.

Passing of the dividend on Briggs Manufacturing was not surprising in view of the recent weakness of the stock, which had sunk to a level so far below where a $3 stock ought to sell that the fate of the dividend was a foregone conclusion.

Gabriel Snubbers turned out to be one of those air holes which are continually being discovered in the stock market. The action on this stock indicated that pool operators have been terminated.

Buying, which carried Cluett Peabody to a new peak, was reported to come from well informed interests who considered the stock selling out of line, in view of its $5 dividend and the substantial character of its earnings.

Radio was one of the speculative timehairs again as the stock rose sharply, getting close to the best levels of the year. As usual, strength here was accompanied by a heavy volume of improved earning capacity of the company.

Sterling, sent to a new high for the year by brisk buying in large blocks, featured foreign exchange dealings. French rates held firm, Italian eased slightly, and Swedish and Brazilian improved a fraction and shares sold up three points, but Norwegian and Peruvian yielded two points.

NEW YORK COTTON.

New York, Sept. 14 (A.P.).—The buy-sell movement in cotton futures in the cotton market yesterday was resumed today with a further sharp recovery in prices. December futures advanced 1/4 point above the closing quotation of Tuesday and 1 1/2 points above the low level of Tuesday morning. It closed at 22.67, with the general market closing steady at net advances of 47 to 50 points.

The market, opening firm at an advance of 13 to 14 points, soon showed net gains of 23 to 24 points on buying apparently influenced by relatively firm Liverpool cables and reports of unsettled weather in the South. Reactions set in under heavy realizing by October eased off from 22.20 to 21.81 and March from 21.75 to 22.55 and net declines of about 8 to 12 points.

The report of the Census Bureau showing domestic consumption of cotton for August, compared with 500,553 bales for August, seemed more bullish than anticipated, but the recovery was short-lived. Weather Bureau also appeared to be a disappointment to recent sellers. The buying movement was renewed after the publication of these reports, and the market advanced to 22.55 and March to 22.58 during the early afternoon, making net advances of about 22 to 23 points on the active position, and recoveries of 123 to 134 points from the low levels of yesterday morning.

Houses with foreign trade connections were among the earlier buyers. The demand later seemed to include fresh buying for wire and commission house accounts, as well as active covering by shorts. The higher prices, however, attracted realizing by early buyers, and there seemed to be no hedge selling around 22 1/2 for December contracts. This was sufficient to supply the demand and interest prices showed reactions some 10 to 15 points from the best. Private cables said an advance in Liverpool was due to local and international buying, with a cessation of selling pressure, and reports and inquiries for cotton from India.

Exports today 23,566, making 621,064 so far this season. Port receipts today 40,321. U. S. port receipts, 1,336,273.

Rally in Ninth Checked by Braxton

Rice and Speaker Hit for Extra Bases in Big 3d Inning.

Hadley Solved After Strong Start; Joe Judge Banished.

By SHIRLEY L. POVICH (Sports Editor of The Post.)

FORTIFYING themselves with three runs in the third inning, the Nationals withstood a series of assaults by the Detroit Tigers yesterday and staggered through to their third straight victory over the Tigers, who are their immediate rivals for third place in the league, but who are becoming more removed with every succeeding contest.

Washington won the game by a 3-to-2 score, experiencing every discomfort that comes from staggering through to victory. The frequent upswing of "the Tigers," who persistently challenged the lead, enmeshed the contest in doubt until the very end, when it behooved Manager Harris to call Garland Braxton from the bullpen, with the bases full, in the ninth inning, one out and one run needed to tie the score.

Irving Hadley wilted rapidly under the continued pressure of the Tigers, and only Braxton's effective relief pitching saved the day for the Nationals.

The first thing Braxton did to ease the tension was to strike out Jackie Warner on three straight strikes for the second out. Then, in the second pitch, he hit Braxton, grounded weakly to Hayes, who tossed Joe Harris for a force-out, and the game was happily over.

In accepting defeat Manager Moriarty, of the Tigers, employed the services of seventeen players. Two pinch hitters in the eighth had helped to cut Washington's lead to a run, but two more pinch hitters and two pinch runners were rendered void by Braxton's pitching in the ninth.

The Nationals concentrated their offense against Earl Whitehill in the third inning to score three runs that they needed. Sam Rice and Tris Speaker were the heroes of this offensive. With one out, Rice hammered a three-base hit to right field and scored on a single by Bucky Harris.

Harris reached second on an attempted delayed steal when Blue threw wildly over Turner's head. Tris Speaker then delivered a two-base hit down the left field foul line, scoring Harris. Goetz beat out Blue and when Blue made his second error of the inning—a wild throw to Whitehill—to head off Goetz at first base—Speaker scored.

That was all that Washington was able to muster on the offensive, but Hadley in the meantime had been invincible. He held

U. S. Poloists Repulse British, 8-5, and Retain Title Trophy

Hitchcock's Brilliant Playing Decides Second International Match—Revamped Invaders Rally Desperately Near End.

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 14 (A. P.).—America's "Pig Four" again reigns supreme in the world of polo, but only after the most spirited challenge they ever have. In a close, fiercely fought but in this afternoon on the green turf of the Meadowbrook Club, America's four horsemen checked Great Britain's thrilling comeback and won the second and deciding match of the International Cup series by a score of 8 to 5.

The margin of triumph was gained in the first period when the brilliant young American forward, Tommy Hitchcock, scored three sensational goals in succession, but it took all of the defensive skill of the Yankees to hold this margin against the spirited attack of the reorganized British team.

GIANTS SPLIT EIGHTH TITLE AGAIN WITH CARDS IS WON BY FARRELL

Both Lose Ground in Armour Tied for 4th Place; Hafez's Clout Wins Opener.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14 (A. P.).—New York and St. Louis remained in a deadlock for second place in the National League today by breaking even for the second successive day in a double-header while the Pirates galloped on to a four-game advantage by whipping the Braves twice.

Some 30,000 fans went wild with joy and showered a straw-hat barrage on the field when Cards stacked away the opener by 6 to 3 in ten innings, but the cheers turned to groans as the Giants brought out a furious attack to win the closing game by 9 to 3.

Hafez was the hero of the first contest by injecting a homer with two on base off Relief Pitcher Henry in the tenth inning. In the ninth Orsatti's triple and Douthett's single tied the score. Barnes was the starting pitcher for New York, opposed to Alexander, the latter giving way to a pinch hitter in the eighth.

Littlejohn, who was credited with the victory in the first game, showed up so well that the Cards started him in the second contest, but he weakened in the sixth inning when he allowed two runs to cross the plate.

Ben Cantwell went the distance, with three runs in and a runner on third, Kauffmann, late of the Phillies, relieved Littlejohn, but four of five batters who faced him safely and the other walked. Ring had to re-entire him to end the inning, seven runs crossing the plate.

J. Hennessey New Tennis Threat

Youth Beats French Star in Five Sets; Tilden Winner.

'Big Bill' and Borotra Play Today; Lacoste Easily Scores.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 14 (A. P.).—John Hennessey, of Indianapolis, rose to the heights of tennis greatness today in achieving a sensational victory over Henri Cochet, of France, in the third round of the national turf championship. He won on sheer grit and staying power in a furious five-set match, 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 3-6, 6-1.

To everyone but Hennessey the defeat of the doughy little Frenchman seemed impossible before the match, but the slender youth knew it could be done and was headed for victory from the start. To him, the fact that Cochet eliminated Tilden in the fourth round of last year's tournament, was the English championship after beating Tilden again, and downed Johnston in the Davis Cup matches last week, was an ancient history and of no account today.

While Cochet lacked in accuracy at the star, Hennessey was angling sharp drives across court for placements, taking the net at every chance and hitting every shot with all the power of his slight frame.

When Cochet rallied to win two sets an even the count, the match seemed his, for Cochet is known internationally for his ability to win long matches from behind. It was not to be, however. Sweeping the first four games, with his white-hot wind net attack and cross-court driving Hennessey carried the fight to the Frenchman and broke through his service for the final game.

As a result of the upset, Hennessey, and not Cochet, will meet Francis T. Hunter in the quarter-finals. Hunter today entered the bracket in easy fashion by downing Jean Wasser, Belgian champion, 7-5, 6-3, 6-3.

Tilden, however, will clash again with a member of the French Davis Cup team. The lanky Philip, who yesterday entered the bracket in easy fashion by downing Jean Wasser, Belgian champion, 7-5, 6-3, 6-3.

Cubs Will See Fight As Wigley's Guests

Chicago, Sept. 14 (A. P.).—The Chicago Cubs, who a few weeks ago were headed to see a world's series, may now be disappointed, but they are assured of a chance to see the world's heavyweight championship bout between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney at the Forest, on the night of September 22.

William Wigley, Jr., chief stockholder of the club, tonight advised Manager McCarthy that he has 31 tickets, to take the 26 ballplayers, the secretaries and the ground superintendent to the fight.

Tex Rickard Refuses to Halt Dempsey's Secret Training

Reporters Protest Against Privacy Is Futile. Glare of Lights Is Excuse—Historic Ring to Be Elevated.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 (A. P.).—News-papers, correspondents, foiled in the attempt to crash the gate and watch Jack Dempsey in his moonlight maneuvers, held an indignation meeting with Promoter Tex Rickard today, protesting because Dempsey had refused to let them in their presence and had elected to do his training at night instead of the afternoon.

Rickard refused to intercede for the correspondents, declaring it was Dempsey's business to get himself in the best possible condition, and he would not give him any advice as to the way this should be done.

"Dempsey and Flynn know their business and I'm not going to interfere," Rickard declared. "It is my idea that Dempsey is boxing at night, with nobody around, to get his eyes accustomed to the glare of the lights. That sounds all right to me."

Rickard declared that it would be suicide, in a pugilistic sense, for Dempsey to train in the terrible heat now prevailing. Rickard announced that Dempsey and Tunney would battle in Soldier Field a week from tomorrow night in the same ring in which Dempsey knocked out Jack Sharkey in the Yankee Stadium two months ago.

The ring will be 20 feet square inside the ropes, to conform to the Illinois law, and will be erected 5 feet above the ground to give the spectators located way back in the distant sections of the "ringside" seats, a better view than in the past.

M'NAMARA TO COACH DEVITT

Only 2 Veterans to Report; Material Plentiful.

JAMES McNAMARA, former Georgetown University football star and present athletic director of Western State College, will coach the Devitt Prep School football team this year.

The new coach is faced with the task of developing practically an entire team. Only Hopper and Kennedy remain from last year's team. The team, that rated among the leaders in local prep grid circles.

Opening against Episcopal High on October 1, and closing with Gonzaga on December 3, the Devitt eleven will encounter a very stiff schedule that also includes games with Eastern, Mount St. Joseph's and Massanutten.

However, the acquisition of several players who have played on local high school teams is expected to bolster the strength of the Devitt team considerably.

Among the newcomers are Walker and Fletcher, formerly of Western State; Brady, of Central; Mullen, of Tech; Judy Forest, of Falls Church; Shapiro of Alexandria; Thompson, of Mount St. Joseph's; and Derry, a husky lad from New Mexico.

Coach McNamara plans to start practice on Monday, and will drive the squad to top speed to be ready for its opening game. The Gonzaga, Emerson and St. John's candidates have been in the field for the past week, but their drills have been confined to conditioning exercises. St. Alban's and Georgetown Prep will also begin preparation for the gridiron season next week.

Women Semifinalists Play Today at Indian Spring.

By HENRY LITCHFIELD WEST.

WHEN the invitation tournament of the Bannockburn Golf Club began yesterday morning the first player to drive a ball was C. C. Heath, a member of the club, who enjoys a 14 handicap. He was formerly rated at 18 or 20, but when he finished as runner-up in the third sixteen at the Indian Spring invitation tournament, his handicap was lowered. Yesterday he romped around the Bannockburn course with a total of 75, leading a field which included John C. Shorrey, the winner of the tournament last year; William P. DiEste, of the Argyle Club, and many other contestants of equal caliber. With a handicap of 14 Heath had a net 61, which is hardly likely to be equaled when the remainder of the field plays today. Heath's 75 was the banner score of his golfing career.

DiEste had a chance to tie the low score of yesterday's play, for he turned in a card of 77 which was marred by four putts on the ninth green. Harry C. Pitt, of the Manor Club, had 76 for the eighteen holes. The scores were generally high, for only nine players in a field of nearly 100 contestants were able to break 80, the list being as follows:

C. C. Heath, Bannockburn.....	Out 16, In 71
Harry C. Pitt, Manor.....	28 38 76
M. H. Robb, Bannockburn.....	29 38 77
Capt. Reed, Congressional.....	37 40 77
William P. DiEste, Argyle.....	37 40 77
J. Brown Miller, Chevy Chase.....	36 41 77
Lester Florine, Beaver Dam.....	41 37 78
John C. Shorrey, Bannockburn.....	28 49 78
J. A. Taylor, Bannockburn.....	39 40 79

As the players came in to the score board at the eighteenth green they had stories galore of three-putts and greens and shots that went astray. A column could be filled with these interesting narratives but mention should be made of the eagle 3 secured by G. Brown Miller, Chevy Chase, on the second hole, 448 yards, when he holed out a massive public pitch to the green from a distance of fifty yards. It is also worth while to give credit to M. H. Robb's birdie 3 on the difficult dog-leg twelfth.
